The image shows a hand using a dry erase marker to draw a Christmas tree on a whiteboard. To the left is a colorful illustration of a Christmas tree with a yellow star, red, yellow, blue, and purple ornaments, and a brown trunk. To the right, a hand is drawing a dotted line for a tree trunk, starting from a small circle at the top. Below the whiteboard, a white tray holds a dry erase marker and a strip of paper with a Christmas tree and three dotted lines for tracing. Below the tray, there are two more strips of paper: one with a Christmas tree and three dotted circles for tracing, and another with a Christmas tree and four dotted vertical lines for tracing.
